PRICE ONE CENT

NO NEW BILLS AFTER SATURDAY FEB. 21

Bill Regarding Kissing of Bible Passed With Amendments

$100,000 FOR DRY OFFICE

Governor Refused to Include It in Budget and May Veto Appropriation.

Richmond, Feb. 12.—Beginning next Monday, the House will convene daily at 11 o'clock instead of at noon, which latter hour has prevailed since the legislators assembled for the 1920 session four weeks ago yesterday. Delegate Price, of Richmond, offered a resolution providing for this change to be adopted by unanimous vote. Mr. Price also offered a joint resolution providing that after Saturday February 21, no new bills shall be introduced with the exception of measures having to do with the public real, or of a purely local character. This resolution also was adopted by unanimous vote. This is the usual joint resolution, introduced at every session, for the purpose of stemming the tide of inflowing bills.

On motion of Democratic Floor leader Willis, of Roanoke city, the House voted to reconsider the Hening bill which would abolish the practice of kissing the Bible when being sworn. The measure, which has endorsement of the State Health department, and which passed the Senate without a dissenting vote, was defeated in the lower branch. Public hearing on the Wilson-Boswell bill to allow City Councils to decide what so-called "blue laws" shall be enforced, will be held in the House this afternoon beginning at 4 o'clock following a spirited debate, the lower branch, by a vote of 46 to 26, yesterday afternoon voted to reconsider the measure, which was killed when it came up on the floor of the House in its second reading last Friday. Appropriations Committee of the House and Finance Committee of the Senate, sitting in joint sessions on the annual appropriations bill, have placed it an item of $50,000 per annum for the use of the State Commissioner. Prohibition in the conduct of this department. The Commissioner asked $75,000 for the first year and $100,000 for the second year.

Governor Davis has recommended abolition of the department, however, in his message to the General Assembly he stated that if the lawmakers see fit to continue it he would prove a reasonable appropriation for its maintenance. In the event the Governor considered $50,000 per annum unreasonable and vetoes this particular item in the annual appropriations bill, friends of the Prohibition Department face the task of mustering the necessary two-thirds vote to pass the item over the Governor's veto. The Governor, it is intimated, has the right to veto any single item of the appropriations bill without such action affecting any other item in the measure. The bill is expected to be reported the two houses by the end of the present week, and probably will be made a special and continuing order of consideration some time next week.

BURSTING WITH WEALTH

Egypt Enjoying a Season of Great Prosperity

Egypt is "bursting with wealth" accumulated from cotton, says a correspondent of the London Daily Express in Cairo. "Illiterate natives living in mud huts have made $100,000 sterling out of cotton dealers," he continues. Some have made $500,000. They are buying land at inflated prices and paying off mortgages which are regarded as family heirlooms. One British official says that the country is made at least $500,000,000. Naturally there is an influx of new millionaires in Cairo with a huge demand for automobiles, jewelry, new houses and all kinds of luxuries, but the provinces many of the newly rich have not changed their standard of living at all.

Colonel Ellis has also been compelled to cancel his engagement to address the Citizens' Association on Monday night.

COMMITTEE ON ROAD

Commerce Body Appoints Twelve to Urge Its Construction

The chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee of twelve to cooperate with the City Council in an effort to have a modern roadway constructed between this city and Fairfax Courthouse. The personnel of the committee was announced today. The council committee and members of this committee will next Wednesday go to Richmond and appear before the State Highway Commission and urge the construction of the road. Every merchant in the city should be vitally interested in this proposition inasmuch as a good road will greatly aid in bringing the residents along its route to Alexandria.

The committee is composed of the following: Julian Y. Williams, chairman; W. A. Smoot, Wallace Lindsey, Charles W. King, Judge S. G. Brent, Harry Hammond, H. R. Burke, E. H. Kemper, Robert F. Downham, T. W. Robinson, R. S. Jones and Capt. Geo. H. Evans.

COLUMBIA VS. LYCEUM JR.

The Columbia Fire Company team succeeded in defeating the Lyceum Juniors after a hard fought battle at McBurney's Hall last night. Although the playing of the "L" lads was good they were out-weighted by the Columbia boys.

W. Meade was the shining light for the C. A. C., while Kersey and Trumble played well for the losers. The score was 31 to 16. The line-up was as follows: Columbia, guards, Deeton and R. Padgett; center, N. Smith; forwards, L. Nowland and W. Meade. Lyceum Jr's, guards, Trumble and L. Whitestone; forwards, Jim Bayliss and Kersey; center, E. Whitestone.

Tonight the Lyceum Jr's. will play the strong High School Reserves at Lyceum Hall, and a battle royal is expected.

CONVENTION POSTPONED

Retail Merchants May Meet in March

The state convention of the Retail Merchants' Association of Virginia which was to have been held here this month has been postponed until after the adjournment of the state legislature.

Announcement of the foregoing was made last night at the monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce.

It is expected that the meeting probably will be held the latter part of March.

The reason for postponing the meeting is that many members are anxious to keep in close touch with the doings of the legislature and if they left their homes it would be a disadvantage to them.

Report was made that the dollar day sale held last Tuesday was a big success and it in all probability will be made a permanent affair.

B. Weil was elected a director for two years.

WILL PLAY MARINE PREPS

The Columbia A. C. will play the Marine Preps Saturday, February 14, at McBurney's Hall, corner King and Washington Streets, at 8 p. m. This promises to be one of the best games of basketball seen here this season, as the Columbia A. C. is now going at top speed. The admission to this game will be 25 cents.

OPPOSE PROBATE OF PORTNER'S WILL

IS SET FOR APRIL 13

Array of Legal Talent Will Figure in Case When It Shall Have Been Called at Manassas.

Manassas, Va., Feb. 12.—What promises to be one of the hardest-fought will cases ever filed in the Circuit Court of Prince William County is that of the late Paul Valear Portner, one of the heirs to the $1,500,000 estate left by his father, Robert Portner, founder of the Portner Brewing Company, of Alexandria, and a large real estate owner in Washington and Manassas.

The will was offered for probate at the February term of the Circuit Court, whereupon Oscar C. Portner, of Washington and Manassas, appeared and opposed the probate.

Judge S. G. Brent, before whom the case will be tried, yesterday set April 13 as the date for trial, and on motion of contestant, appointed as surrogates Thomas H. Lion, commonwealth's attorney of Prince William County, and H. Thornton Davies, both qualifying by executing a joint bond of $150,000.

Portner, who was unmarried, died October 30, 1919, in New York City leaving his entire estate amounting to $250,000, for life to his sister, Mrs. Etta P. Meredith, wife of William P. Meredith, of Washington, and the remainder to her daughter, Sylvia. The will was made two years prior to his death, while he was critically ill in a hospital in Washington.

The legal heirs are Mrs. Anna P. Flood, wife of Representative Henry D. Flood; Mrs. Palmer Derby, Mrs. William P. Meredith, Oscar C. Portner, all of Washington; Alvah O. Portner, of Baltimore; Mrs. Alma Portner and Mrs. A. L. Humes, of New York City, sisters and brothers of the deceased, and a nephew, Edward Portner, and a niece Sylvia Meredith.

At the time of his death Mr. Portner was vice president and director of the Capital Construction Company of Washington; the Virginia Feed and Milling Company of Alexandria; and the Portner Realty Company, Manassas, the holdings of the latter corporation including the Portner apartments in Washington and 2,000 acre farm, "Annaburg," joining the corporate limits of Manassas.

Counsel for proponents is John S. Barbour, of Fairfax and Washington; Peele, Hoehling and Ogilby, of Washington; and H. Thornton Davies, of Manassas, and for the contestants Thomas H. Lion, of Manassas; Thomas W. Harrison, Richard E. Byrd and I. W. Castigan, of Washington.

LOCAL TEAM VICTORIOUS

Lee School Basketball Team Easy Winner Over Manassas Freshman Team

By a overwhelming score of 46 to 4 the midget girls' team of Lee public school last Tuesday night defeated the High School freshman team of the Manassas High School in one of the fastest and most clean cut games seen here this season. The game was played in the auditorium of the High school.

The cool and deliberate manner in which the Lee School youngsters advanced the ball from one end of the floor to the other by means of short crisp-passes, which quite baffled their less active opponents, and the accuracy with which they caged baskets from almost any position was the admiration of the large number of sport lovers who were present.

The playing of the centers and forwards was especially commendable and as the opponents score shows the guards were always on the job.

STATE TAX RETURNS MUST BE SAME AS U. S.

Virginia Tax Assessors Have Access to Government Files

WILL INVESTIGATE ALL

Penalties to be Imposed on Those Whose Returns to State are Less Than Amount Given to Government

Taxpayers in Alexandria in common with every other place in the state of Virginia hereafter will have to make their income tax returns correspond with the income tax returns furnished to the United States government, otherwise the persons failing to do so will be subject to a penalty for their failure.

The state income tax department recently has been investigating the returns furnished the government and it is stated in many cases found the wide difference between the amounts given the two. In the cases of corporations the penalties and fines have been collected.

The force of income tax workers for Virginia is now engaged in going over the returns given by individuals which it is stated will hereafter be done every year, the United States having access to the returns given in Virginia and the government reciprocating by permitting the state authorities to inspect its returns.

An official of the tax income bureau by commenting on the new method of adopted stated it will yield many thousands of dollars to the state of Virginia.

New York, Feb. 12.—A shortage of 40,000 trained nurses exists in the United States, according to the National Organization for Public Health Nursing. The organization, which provides information on courses in public health nursing, today started a campaign to interest young women in the profession in the hope of enrolling 60,000 workers. It was declared that men have become "experts at cooking and sewing but nursing is wholly a woman's job."

PROPOSAL TO REVISE THE CONSTITUTION

Senate Body Favors Putting Question to People

HAS STRONG SUPPORT

Measure Regulating Search Warrants Reported Favorably — Provides Heavy Penalties.

Richmond, Feb. 12.—Favorable action was taken yesterday by the Senate Courts of Justice Committee on Senator James E. Cannon's proposal for submitting to the voters of Virginia in the November election the question of whether there shall be called a convention for the purpose of revising the State Constitution. The resolution was ordered reported to the Senate, the vote being 8 to 2.

Following the action of the committee on the Constitutional convention resolution, a motion for the favorable report of Senate Bill, No. 63, to regulate search warrants and to prohibit searches without search warrants, was carried, 8 to 2. Senators Robert F. Leedy and J. T. Deal are patrons of this measure.

Under the resolution of Senator Cannon, the General Assembly of 1922 will be required to call a constitutional convention providing the majority of the voters of Virginia so desire. Supporters of the resolution point to the numerous proposed amendments to the Constitution as the best argument for a complete revision of the document, which is declared to be too explicit in that it hampers and restricts the General Assembly in adopting measures to meet changing conditions.

Under the search-and-seizure bill reported out by the Courts of Justice Committee, no search warrant can be issued until there has been filed with the justice, judge or court authorized to issue affidavits, an affidavit particularly describing the place to be searched, the thing sought and an allegation of the offense. A search not made in compliance with the law will be treated as a misdemeanor for the first offense, and a felony for the second offense, while the officer violating the law shall be subject to the aggravated person compensatory or punitive damages, the amount to be decided by the jury. The officer, if guilty, forfeits his office. Any officer issuing a warrant not complying with the law will be guilty of a misdemeanor. The bill also provides for the safeguarding of seized property.

STRUCK BY ELECTRIC TRAIN

Negro in Buggy Has Narrow Escape on Upper King Street

The northbound electric train which left this city at 7:40 last night struck a buggy in which Dolly Lee, colored, was seated as it entered the 1700 block on King street from Cameron. The buggy is said to have been zigzagging in front of the train, and when it was seen a collision was inevitable. Motorman Lyles put on the emergency brakes and resorted to every device to bring the train to a stop. Notwithstanding his exertions, however, the train struck the left hind wheel of the vehicle, throwing Lee into the street. Conductor Hockman with others of the crew hastened to Lee's aid, and Officer Raymond Smith appearing on the scene, the negro was turned over to him and conveyed to the Alexandria Hospital.

It was discovered that Lee had been drinking, according to the officer. He refused to tell where he procured his liquor. His injuries consisted chiefly of scratches, and upon being discharged from the hospital he will be made, to face the Police Court to answer the charge of careless driving.

Whisky is still procurable in Alexandria. On Tuesday night a negro appeared in the Police Court under the influence of liquor. He had been in a fight from which he had emerged second-best. He and the negro with him he had been fighting were fined $5 each.

A white man was subsequently brought before the court to answer the charge of being drunk. He, too, was assessed $5.

DREADNOUGHTS WIN

The 63rd Infantry quint journeyed over from Potomac Park last night engaging the Dreadnoughts in an interesting basketball contest at the Armory, and being compelled to take the short end of a 26-13 score. The soldiers proved to be adept at guarding and passing, but were off in their shooting, the working of their center, Eustis, being their only redeeming feature in this line. The general teamwork of the Dreadnoughts featured the contest, with the goal shooting of Beaton, Crouch and Dreifus and the guarding of Roberts and his long shot from the center of the floor outstanding. Line up and summary: Dreadnoughts—Beaton and Dreifus, forwards; Crouch, center; Loverin and Roberts, guards. 63rd Infantry—McDonough and Howard, forwards; Eustis, center; Murray and Savage, guards. Substitutions—Dreadnoughts: McDonald for Roberts, Wenzel for Loverin, Goals—Beaton 3, Dreifus 5, Crouch 3, Loverin, Roberts, McDonough, Howard and Eustis 3. Fouls Eustis 3 (out of 5). Time of game, 4 ten minute quarters. Referee, Mr. J. W. Tullock, U. of Penn. Scorer, Mr. Everett Kelly, Timer, Mr. Russell Kelly.

SPORTS

Tonight, the American Legion basketball team will meet the fast War Risk of Washington at the Armory, and from all indications, a rattling road contest should result. Manager Champion of the soldier aggregation expects to see his lads come home with the long end of the score. The game is scheduled to get under way promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

Tomorrow nights affair in the City Basketball League between the Dreadnoughts and the Lyceums bids fair to bring out the record crowd of the season at the Armory, and plans are being made to rope off the playing floor, so as to avoid the possibility of the crowd encroaching on the side lines. Both Manager Wheatley of the Lyceums and Manager Wenzel of the Dreadnoughts plan to use their strongest lineups, although the injury to Crilly, star forward of the Dreadnought club in the game last Friday night, may force the crack basket shooter to forego the contest from the side lines.

A meeting of the Cardinal Athletic Club will shortly be held at the home of Sylvester Breen, when plans for the coming baseball season will be mapped out. The Cardinals plan to have another real team on the diamond this season.

THE ALLIES' DEMANDS

Scenes in connection with the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia at Appomattox in 1865 are among the most interesting in American history. Rations were issued by the order of General Grant to the former Confederates, they were allowed to retain their horses and sidearms, and the union general exclaimed, "Now let us have peace." On another occasion General Grant is quoted as saying, "We can always afford to do right."

The greatest war in the history of the world is now a thing of the past. Prussian militarism, which had so long been a blot upon civilization, is no more. Many years will come and go before the shriek of the black eagle or swastika or the sabre rattling upon the part of Teutons will cause apprehension in this world. Like the ancient Assyrians, Medo-Persians, Greeks and Romans, Germany has had her day.

It seems to be a mooted question as to the right of the conquering powers to demand the requisition of the individuals who were at the head of the German Empire at the time the war was precipitated. A conservative Englishman recently said: "Suppose Germany had won the war and made one condition of the armistice that King George, General Haig, Admirals Jellicoe and Beatty, together with Marshals Joffe and Foch be delivered up to the conquerors, what an issue we would be facing!"

While we have no apology to offer for Germany in bringing on the war, nor for the wanton cruelty of Teuton generals or submarine commanders, we believe there is always a temptation to victors to go too far. We had this spirit in our country at the close of the civil war. All men at the head of the nation at that time were not moved by the spirit of the general who commanded the victorious army. Captain Wirz, in charge of the Andersonville prison, was delivered up, tried and hanged while Jefferson Davis, President of the former Southern Confederacy was being held in irons at Fortress Monroe.

The military rule in the south and subsequent force bills will long be remembered by people of the south over whom the Stars and Stripes were again waving.

Many years passed away before the conquering people became clothed and in their right minds. The echo of the bloody shirt is still heard after long intervals.

One of the records of a talking machine is entitled, "See What My Boy Got in France." He had brought home a French wife. His mother is enthused beyond measure, but in her delirium of joy she causes her liege lord to exclaim in stentorian tones: "Don't go too far!" These words might be directed to many thoughtless persons who seem to think it is impossible to overload prostrate Germany.

A PARAGON

The man who promptly pays his bills Will grease the wheels of trade, And he will feel much better, too, When all his bills are paid. Procrastination is a vice That debtors should avoid, Especially if they don't like By duns to be annoyed.

The man who promptly pays his bills May proudly hold his head, Collectors may chase other men, But he need have no dread, What, though his friends have limousines,

And cut a social dash, If all the tradesmen say of him, "He's just as good as cash!"

The man who promptly pays his bills Is very much too rare, When the millennium arrives We'll see him everywhere, Meanwhile, unbought joy to him, And may his tribe increase, Till all of us, as he does now, The wheels of trade shall grease. —Somerville Journal.

THE SLESVIG PLEBISCITE

The plebiscite in the Slesvig zone showed, roughly a three fourths majority for annexation to Denmark. More than fifty years of German rule had not Germanized this territory to any appreciable degree, for the pro-German vote represented chiefly those born in Slesvig of German parents, serving there as civil or military officials or settled there as colonists.

The German government was well aware that it had never reconciled North Slesvig to German discipline or Kultur. Prussia had promised Austria in the treaty of Prague to allow the North Slesvigers to decide whether they wanted to remain German or to be united politically with Denmark. That promise was never kept. No date for the referendum was set in the treaty. There never was any prospect that Prussia, uncoerced from the outside, would risk an election.

As the New York Tribune says, "Prussia was a state built on military force. Most of its territory represented acquisitions through violence. West Prussia and Posen were taken from Poland. Silesia was snatched from Austria, Saxon Prussia from Saxony, Pomerania from Sweden. Hanover and Hesse-Cassel were conquered, and various other small states and cities were annexed after the war of 1866. Parts of the Rhineland were acquired after the Napoleonic wars. Alsace-Lorraine, an imperial, not a Prussian, dependency, was annexed in 1871. The German population in these extensions was Prussianized. But where was an alien race had to be assimilated the Prussian spirit failed. It was non-assimilative because it conceived it to be the duty of a conquering power not to serve but to command. Prussia offered the Poles the Danes, the Alsatians and Lorrainers nothing which they could be persuaded was a fair substitute for their own civilization. Prussian Kultur repelled them as much as Prussian absolutism."

LEEDY SCORES SUFFRAGIST

Prompted to Speech by Action of Women Who Dubbed Him "Vulgarian"

Richmond, Feb. 12.—Rising to a point of personal privilege, Senator Robert F. Leedy, of Page, Tuesday in the Senate scored women suffrage leaders who left the chamber on Friday night rather than hear him speak, and challenged anyone to besmirch his military record, as he had been done anonymously in a market copy of newspaper mailed to him recently.

Senator Leedy declared that one of the women who had left the Senate chamber had remarked that she did not care to hear a "vulgarian" speak. The attack on his military record was written across his picture in a local paper and said, "kicked out of the army for ignorance."

That two efficiency boards had not found anything against him as a soldier was the declaration of Senator Leedy, who commanded a regiment on the Mexican border and at Camp McClellan. He stated that he should have been promoted to brigadier general on the strength of the two hearings, and was willing to submit the record to any twelve Senators to pass on.

The whole trouble he laid at the door of Major-General Charles A. Morton, who, he declared, returned from France and wanted his officers to dress like the British and French. No Virginian had ever had to shine his shoe, said the Senator, and he would never ask one too. When he told this to General Morton, his doom was sealed he said.

Senator Beverly defended Senator Leedy under whom he had served as a captain. The Senator said that his son, who died at the head of his battalion in France, had spoken the highest praise of Colonel Leedy, under whom he had served before entering West Point.

Atlanta Mayor is Advised That Working Conditions Are Unsatisfactory
 Atlanta, Feb. 12.—Possibility of a street car strike became apparent Tuesday when Mayor Key was informed by a delegation from the men's union that negotiations between the company and its employees had reached such a point that they felt he should be advised of it.

The contract between the company and the union expired January 1, and while no public statement had been made, it is said the men asked for more money and a "closed shop." No statement was available at the office of the company tonight and pending a meeting of the union, the employees would not predict their next move. Mayor Key was expected to take the matter up in an effort to reach an agreement so the contract could be renewed.

TWENTY-ONE PERISHED

Halifax, Feb. 12.—Twenty-one men perished when the British steamship Bradboyne, formerly the War Panther, sank off Newfoundland, and, according to wireless advices received at the Marine and Fisheries Bureau here.

A lifeboat from the steamship Oxonian, attempting to rescue the crew of the Bradboyne, was swamped, with the loss of the second officer and five members of the crew. Fifteen men perished when the Bradboyne went down.

Capt. G. D. Reese and Second Officer Bellas, of the Bradboyne, were picked up by the steamship Mounmouth. The Oxonian sent word by wireless that she was returning with twenty-six members of the Bradboyne's crew.

VIRGINIA NEWS

State Senator G. Walter Mapp announced yesterday that he would at once present a measure to extend presidential suffrage to the women of Virginia. He expressed the belief that no amendment to the State constitution is necessary in order to allow Virginia women to vote for presidential electors. Woman suffrage leaders announce that the real fight will come today, when Col. Robert P. Leedy's resolution to reject the Anthony amendment to the Federal Constitution will be considered in the house of delegates.

"Oh, don't tell me that he is dead" were the words of Mrs. Mittie Jester Cumming yesterday when a pastor delegated to inform her of her husband's death visited her in her cell at the Elizabeth county jail. She then fainted. Although S. Gordon Cumming, husband, from whom the woman was separated, died Monday, following wounds inflicted by Mrs. Cumming on Saturday, her condition had been such that physicians did not deem it advisable to inform her of her husband's death. After she had recovered from her swoon yesterday morning, Mrs. Cumming declared that she had prayed since last Saturday, on which day the shooting occurred, that her husband might recover, and she insists that she did not mean to kill him.

The council of the Episcopal diocese of southern Virginia yesterday in Petersburg adopted a canon to provide for an executive committee which will be a continuing committee of council, and in a large measure will be invested with authority of council between sessions.

BIGGEST DIRIGIBLE PLANNED

Washington, Feb. 12.—An appropriation of $2,500,000 to enable the Navy Department to construct the largest dirigible in the world was urged before the House Naval Affairs Committee yesterday by Captain Thomas T. Craven, director of naval aviation.

"The dirigible we have in contemplation," said Captain Craven, "would be fifty feet longer and cost $500,000 more than the one now being built in England for the navy. It will be modeled along the lines of that one which we hope to see completed during the summer."

"The new and largest dirigible will be built in this country if Congress gives us the appropriation, probably after the other one arrived here. Its construction would take at least twelve months. It would cost probably $500,000 a year for maintenance."

Captain Craven said the new craft would carry a greater armament than any now planned by any other nation, and would use helium gas, the non-inflammable gas discovered during the war. About 2,700,000 feet of gas, he said, would be required to inflate the ship.

PARIS MUST DANCE IN COLD

Paris, Feb. 12.—At a meeting of the cabinet with President Poincaré a decree was signed placing restrictions upon certain uses of electric power and cutting off the supply of coal to dancing palaces.

SIGNALING PLANETS

Wireless Message From Mars Are Possible, Edison Believes

New York, Feb. 12.—Thomas A. Edison, whose 73rd birthday was celebrated yesterday, said that wireless messages from this planet went on through space as far as Mars, and if, as astronomers have held, Martians are further advanced than earth dwellers, Mr. Edison sees no reason to doubt that they listen in on earthly air conversations. Martians might be right, Mr. Edison thought, in his assertion that some wireless "strays" were messages from Mars.

"It is possible he is correct," said Mr. Edison. "Every wireless message flashed from Arlington goes in to the uttermost depths of space. Our wireless stations flash messages across the face of the earth, but those same waves travel upward, or rather outward, billions, even trillions, of miles through ether. Existing machinery is sufficiently strong to send a signal to Mars. The question is, have the beings there receiving apparatus delicate enough to 'get' us?"

"They tell us that the Martians are as far ahead of us humans as we are ahead of chimpanzees. If that is true they must have such apparatus. Lee de Forest made an audion so delicate that when a fly walks over the transmitter the sound as amplified will almost shatter your eardrums."

GABY DESLYS DIES

Noted Dancer and Actress Coupled Her Name With Ex-King Manuel

Paris, Feb. 12.—Gaby Deslys, the French actress and dancer, died yesterday. She had recently undergone several operations for an infection of the throat. Early in December she was considered to be in a grave condition, and her relatives were summoned from America.

One of the first introductions of Gaby Deslys to the newspaper reading public in America was about nine years ago, when she was spoken of in Paris correspondence as "the young actress whose name has been coupled frequently with that of Manuel, the deposed king of Portugal." As soon as Manuel was deposed the flood gates of gossip were opened, and the young woman became one of the most talked of persons in Europe.

THE automobile has been instrumental in teaching us to figure costs.

The purchase price—plus the upkeep—divided by the years of service—gives you the actual cost.

On that basis a good watch is the cheapest thing of value that you can own. A good watch is a necessity and will last a lifetime.

SIXTH RIOT VICTIM DEAD

Slayer of 10 Year Old Girl, Removed to State Prison. Lexington, Ky., Feb. 12.—Although William Lockett, convicted murderer of 10 year old Geneva Hardman, was safe yesterday in Edinville prison, where he is to pay the death penalty for his crime on March 11, 500 troops were held today in Lexington, which remains nominally under martial law.

Military officers spirited Lockett out of town on a special train late Tuesday night. Four hundred of the special troops ordered here Monday accompanied the train. Though technically martial law still is in force, practically all restrictions were lifted at noon today. City police have resumed their duties.

They couldn't be built now for twice $71,000

When the talk turns from politics to railroads, and the traveler with the cool head breaks in with, "There's an awful lot of water in the railroads," here are some hard-pan facts to give him:

American railroads have cost $80,500 a mile—roadbed, structures, stations, yards, terminals, freight and passenger trains—everything from the great city terminals to the last rails.

A good concrete-and-asphalt highway costs $36,000 a mile—just a bare road, not counting the cost of culverts, bridges, etc.

They are capitalized for only $71,000 a mile—much less than their actual value. Seventy-one thousand dollars today will buy one locomotive.

English railways are capitalized at $274,000 a mile; the French at $155,000; the German $132,000; even in Canada (still in pioneer development) they are capitalized at $97,000 a mile. The average for all foreign countries is $100,000.

Low capitalization and high operating efficiency have enabled American railroads to pay the highest wages while charging the lowest rates.

PAVES WAY FOR AGREEMENT

Acceptable to Democrats. Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—Steps to eliminate many collateral issues of the Peace Treaty fight were taken yesterday on the floor while negotiations were being resumed privately for a compromise of the two principal points remaining in controversy, Article X and the Monroe Doctrine.

Modification of eight of the fourteen Republican reservations on the basis of agreements by the bi-partisan conference and in a way said to be satisfactory to many Democrats was proposed formally by Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, the Republican leader.

Four of the remaining six are said to have been already accepted without change by the Democratic leaders, leaving those which relate to Article X and the Monroe Doctrine as the only subjects of serious disagreement.

NATURE PROVIDES THE INGREDIENTS

Argo-Phosphate, the New Herbal Remedy, Now Endorsed by Local People

If the digestive organs are not properly performing the work which nature has assigned to them, then nutrition, which is absolutely essential to recovery of other diseased parts, will be lacking and there can be no permanent relief. When bodily nutrition is normal, the stomach digests the food, the blood absorbs and carries the nourishment to the different parts of the body, causing the various organs to properly perform their functions.

Nature has provided a remedy in the ingredients of Argo-Phosphate, the new herbal stomach remedy which is now being introduced here. It is purely vegetable and its vitalizing, corrective and reconstructive qualities are so pronounced that beneficial results are noticed from the first day. That this is true, it is only necessary to listen to the statements made daily by local people who have given Argo-Phosphate a fair trial and have been benefited thereby. It is dispensed by Gibsons Drug Store.

THEATRES

INGOMAR THEATRE

RICHMOND THEATRE

No finer picture than "Eve in Exile" showing at the Richmond Theatre today could have been found for Charlotte Walker, Thomas Santachi, Wheeler Oakman, Melbourne MacDowell, and the other screen celebrities who bring to life the characters of Cosmo Hamilton's fascinating novel.

Thrills, laughs, heart-throbs and breath-catches tread upon one another's heels. Not alone does the story hold the interest throughout but the settings and photoplays in themselves make the play well worth seeing. When coming away from "Eve in Exile" more than one spectator will feel he has had something like a vacation on the seashore or in the piney woods.

KILLED BY GAS

Brooklyn, Feb. 12.—Frederick Schroeder, of 1716 Putnam Avenue, Queens Borough, who took his two-year-old son to the home of his mother Mary Schroeder, at 167 Stanhope Street, Brooklyn, Tuesday because his wife, a pneumonia victim, had been sent to Wyckoff Heights Hospital, opened the door of his mother's home last night and was assailed by an overpowering odor of gas.

As he ran through the apartment to open a window, he stumbled over something inert on the floor of the kitchen. When he returned to that room after opening every window in the apartment, he saw that it was the bodies of his mother and his sister Matilda Schroeder, that had tripped him. They had been overcome by gas. Schroeder's son was unconscious in his crib.

An emergency crew of the Brooklyn Union Gas Company came with a lung motor and an ambulance was sent from Wyckoff Heights Hospital. All efforts to revive the women and the boy were vain. They were dead. The position of the bodies indicated that the elder woman had succumbed first to the fumes, which came from a defective tube attached to the gas stove.

Her daughter, apparently, had fallen senseless across Mrs. Schroeder's body, while attempting to drag her to a window to revive her. The boy, pinned in by the high sides of his crib, had no opportunity to escape.

HOW TO PROTECT GENERALS

Four Thousand German Students Join in Meeting to Protest Against Demand for Extradition

Berlin, Feb. 12.—Four thousand students of the University of Berlin met on the university campus at noon yesterday to protest against the Allied demand for extradition of those accused of war crimes. The students vowed to guard the persons demanded with their own bodies, if necessary.

The rector of the university, who announced that he had destroyed the honorary diplomas conferred on him by American and English universities, was among the speakers. After singing national songs the students dispersed. The old German colors hung at half mast from the main hall of the university during the meeting.

The government announced yesterday that it would make public in installment from the official list of persons demanded by the Allies for extradition, and also issue the list in book form for the purpose "of forestalling any attempt to confuse the public by biased reports."

As the alleged mistreatment of inmate prisoners in German camps figures largely in the Allied indictment the Ministry of Justice has ordered prompt investigation of the prison camp archives and the reopening of cases where camp authorities were charged with misconduct.

AN AWFUL REVENGE

Russians Abandoned by Transport, Sink Women and Children

"According to a message from the Novo Rossak, when the volunteer transport Karantin with officers and officials and their wives and children aboard, numbering 1,400, left Mariopol (in the Russian province of Yekaterinoslav) on the approach of the bolsheviks, the volunteer army, incensed at being left behind, fired on the ship. A shell pierced a boiler and the transport sank with all aboard."

Admiral Kolchak was executed by his own troops to prevent his rescue by white troops moving in the direction of Irkutsk for that purpose, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Herald. The Moscow soviet sent a wireless message asking his captors to spare his life, but the appeal was too late.
